

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The war department announces that Private James Muir of Burlington was erroneously reported wounded in action.

Sandy Thompson's Ford car is the last to disappear from a Burlington street. Its number was 833. Thefts of cars in Burlington have been very numerous so far this season.

Gardner Coffin of Burlington sustained a broken collar bone Sunday afternoon when he attempted to board a car coming into Burlington, the car starting and throwing him against a telegraph pole.

The Bellows Falls federal bureau is finding work for many applicants. Last week 66 men were placed in employment, 24 being soldiers. The previous week 58 men were furnished work, 29 being service men.

Jay Read Pember of Woodstock, who has been in frail health for some time, fell while undressing for bed May 30 and broke his hip. For many years Mr. Pember was a clerk of Windsor county. He is a native of Randolph.

Rev. Ivan H. Benedict, for six years pastor of the Baptist church in Montpelier, who gave up his pastorate to enter war work and who, since that ended, has been preaching in Brantford, Conn., was married in Bennington June 11 to Miss Hilda Frances Pratt of the latter place.

John Baker, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Baker of Brattleboro, ran into the street in front of a motor cycle Wednesday night and was knocked down. Gashes were cut on his head and one leg and there were many other bruises.

H. H. Kidder of White River Junction, who was in Windsor Wednesday evening, parked his car in front of the Windsor hotel, where it was badly damaged when run into by another automobile. Arrangements were made to pay the damage.

Ray Mooney of Newport caught a wildcat with his hands last summer and last fall exhibited it at a number of the fairs and was planning to do the same this fall, but the cat died in the parade of last week, the extreme heat being too much for it.

Heavy damages to the main building of the Sheffield Farms company's milk plant at Vergennes resulted Thursday morning from fire. The machinery in the factory is very expensive and it is considered likely that the amount of damage will run into the thousands.

Miss Eleanor Black, who has been superintendent of the city hospital in Sydney, N. S., since returning from a year and a half of active service overseas, has been asked to come to Brattleboro as superintendent of the Mutual Aid association, succeeding Miss Frances M. Stebbins, who died recently.

Miss Hildreth Tyler of Enosburg Falls, U. V. M., 21, has been awarded the prize of a $10 gold piece for having the best athletic record in the Women's Athletic association of the University of Vermont. The standing was one of enthusiasm and college spirit, as well as activity in the various athletics. At the city's track meet, held on the grounds of Grassmount last Saturday, Miss Tyler was a winner in the high jump, 50-yard dash and running broad jump.

A loaded express truck, left too near edge of the platform at the station Newport a few days ago, was struck by an incoming train and the parcels scattered indiscriminately. Among them was a crate of small pigs and several crates of strawberries. The crates were opened by the fall to the platform.

We have sold our farm and must make immediate possession, we will sell to the highest bidder, on the farm near North Randolph, known as the "Buck and Tools" farm.

Frank O'Neill, 55, a widely known traveling man, died at a hospital Tuesday in Portland, Me., from shock. He was born at White River Junction and was for some time engaged in the wholesale food business there with his father. He also served as a member of the Vermont legislature. For the past three years he had lived in Cape Elizabeth, Me. He leaves a widow and seven children.

Two Large Barns Destroyed.

Two barns, owned by Joseph Parizo of Winoski on his farm one-half mile from Fort Ethan Allen, valued at $12,000, were totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. Besides the loss of the building considerable hay and straw which were in the barn was also destroyed.

Mr. Parizo employed two men on the farm but they live at their homes in Winoski, as there are no living quarters on the farm. Due to this fact it is not definitely known at what time the fire started or what the origin was. A fire started up to the conference of the librarians, trustees and citizens who will discuss the problem of the library in its relation to the various activities of the community to ascertain how it may cooperate with them to the advantage of both. Short talks will be given by men and women from different parts of the state. These talks are to be followed by general discussion as to efficient methods of co-operation in our Vermont towns.

Vermont Library Association.

The annual meeting of the Vermont Library association will be held at Montpelier on July 1. The meeting will be largely given up to conferences of librarians, trustees and citizens who will discuss the problem of the library in its relation to the various activities of the community to ascertain how it may cooperate with them to the advantage of both. Short talks will be given by men and women from different parts of the state. These talks are to be followed by general discussion as to efficient methods of co-operation in our Vermont towns.
